WHAT ELSE: Family Services of Greater Houston will honor Ginni and Richard Mithoff and family as the 2007 Family of the Year for their strong family values and their dedication to the Houston community. The Celebration of Families luncheon is one of the agency's most important fundraisers. With this support, Family Services can continue its award-winning programs and respond to Houstonians' changing needs.

Family Services of Greater Houston is one of Houston's oldest non-profit social service organizations. For more than 100 years, Family Services has continued to meet the changing needs of Houston's families. Each day, the organization works to fulfill its mission to strengthen individuals, families and communities through the provision of preventive, supportive and therapeutic services.

Through individual and family counseling, substance abuse prevention and education, parent resources, school-based services, family and senior support and HIV/AIDS care management, Family Services helps individuals, children and families become self-sufficient so they can live healthy and independent lives.
