ABOUT NATIONAL FAMILY WEEK: National Family Week, November 19-25, is a time to remember that children live better lives when their families are strong, and that families are strong when they live in communities that connect them to economic opportunities, social networks and services. To celebrate the week, families are encouraged to plan activities that support family unity, such as adopting a military family, volunteering at a community event or taking time off to attend a school function.

ABOUT ALLIANCE FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES: The annual celebration of National Family Week is sponsored by the Alliance for Children and Families. Family Services is one of several hundred Alliance members nationwide. The Alliance is the nation's largest association of private, nonprofit human service agencies and organizations. Its mission is building the capacity of its members to serve and advocate on behalf of children, families, and communities. Alliance members provide services and support to more than 3.4 million children and families in more than 6,700 communities across North America.

ABOUT FAMILY SERVICES OF GREATER HOUSTON: Family Services of Greater Houston is one of Houston's oldest non-profit social service organizations. For more than 100 years, Family Services has continued to meet the changing needs of Houston's families. Each day, the organization works to fulfill its mission to strengthen individuals, families and communities through the provision of preventive, supportive and therapeutic services.
